Is The Game Being Sold or Told, Be 21 about It!

Wisdom can never be brought only given to those who are willing to be taught very few take time to listen to a wise man talk...we hope you will pay close attention as Street Elements bring you a wise man's thoughts"...on our question? Raised Is The Game Being Sold or Is The Game Being Told.

Fred Carswell (Poohchello)

Poohchello...once said with a grin on his face the game is over it's been over for sometime now. Some made it, and some got evacuated!

Back in the days you had your own Coon's, old G's and Veterans to the game. Back then the game was to be sold not told. You wanted it you earned it you had to play the play a game with rules although none never took the time to write the book you learned from the old G's was under the big tree's yelling domino we was paid to yell five-o as youngsters getting slapped upside the head and was told never to repeat what was said or what we saw talking to the law was forbidden. Now days our drug dealers don't understand the phrase "pay to play" love the fast life but don't want to pay the price. They take another man's life. Back in the day we had real hustlers and scuffles who made shit happen now you got suckers who prevent shit from happening in the game today they destroy one another back then when one take a fall they made calls, lawyers were paid, family had it made. Now a day they pray on your downfalls, and make calls to testify against you. "rule 35 control buys they lie (5kones) murder without guns" a system that was formed to reduce the time of caters who did it and none never went to jail but now our brothers have taken it and destroyed it putting everybody in jail"Beretta said it best don't do the crime if you cant do the time" and they aint doing the time they doing you!

"Death before this honor" was the mobsters motto most of them died in they sleep but how could? They rest in peace. "Sammie The Bull" was the rat he sold the cheese that contaminated our streets conspiracy wasn't formed for you or me but its been dealt into the wrong hands "the black man" and they using it to destroy one another afraid to leave them streets so they make deals for the police if he's wearing the throwbacks jersey don't serve him, the numbers is equipped with camera and the wire. They love the joy but don't expect the pain! Currency is being exchanged for names dressed up real nice the feds give them kilos to sell at a cheap price and you bite...a bite that has cost many their life. A warning aint no more "getting it for the low" Hernando and Hido cant be found in the clubs no more if he is he's the popo... save your self its all they know. Winning in the game this day in age is like hitting the lotto very few. In their minds I comes before U our homies you thing never lose FBI. 302's say homie has been on payroll since "92"only reason you still free the feds don't want you!

The game has never been sold, because to guy the game; you have to advertise it plus put it on the market to be bought so it's always been "told". You have teach the game first before you can sale the game. Teaching the game comes from watching and listening. People don't know 1% of the game, all they know is what these 2nd hand news reporters "rapper" sing in they songs they are telling for free. But they claim they are keeping it real. That's why they let clowns and buttons make songs. It's very few true 2 the game brothers and sisters. 99.9% of these Brothers they mention is telling and crying. Sucker = male/female come in the game with selfhate, so it's not hard to get them to "rat", but they claim that's a "Gangster". Because he told on other people out of state, But not on the one's in his hood so they give them shout outs. How can that be? I see you say people telling on other people with the ideal of money being involved or out of fear.

They don't tell for money, fear to a certain extent, but the fear is for catching alot of time or they don't want to see the next brother or sister who is keeping it real get out. Alot of time people just don't get told on by the people they are dealing with : people talk so much in Prison they be telling and don't even know they telling on people. So a "rat" can be right in the conversation and just record and add on to everything that's being told. That how people get locked up. If you read the Bible ratting been going on since Adam & Eve. Adam told on Eve and they all blamed Satan. Allah made one mouth, but two of everything else "Life & Death lies in the tongue ". If they mom or father couldn't teach them to be quiet, how can a brother or sister in the street can keep them quiet. If you are going through it with Dudes, you may get the best of them, they call the police on you. But they claim they "gangsta". If you really pay attention from the Police to the President to a child nobody like to be told on. Nobody! But they will use the (selfhate) of a brother or sister to help them get someone who they know they can't get a 1,000 feet close too. But when you see them they cover their tracks: so really who loves a "RAT"?

Now the 2nd question "Being 21 about it" I don't know who came up with that quote. As if being 21 or older is going to stop you from telling, you have a better chance with 21 and under . Becase they still believe in that keeping it real until they run into a sucker. So that "Being 21 About." Don't carry no weight. You would think by them being older they would be wiser not to fall for the bullshit, but they be as dumb as before, I am just a believer in don't swim in water thats too deep." Everybody want to be a Gangster and killer etc. But they don't know it's a heavy price that they and their families have to pay. " The game never choose people, people choose the game." So my question is, why choose something you don't have the heart or mind to know that it will test everything you claim or confess or profess to believe in and thats the religion of keeping it real.

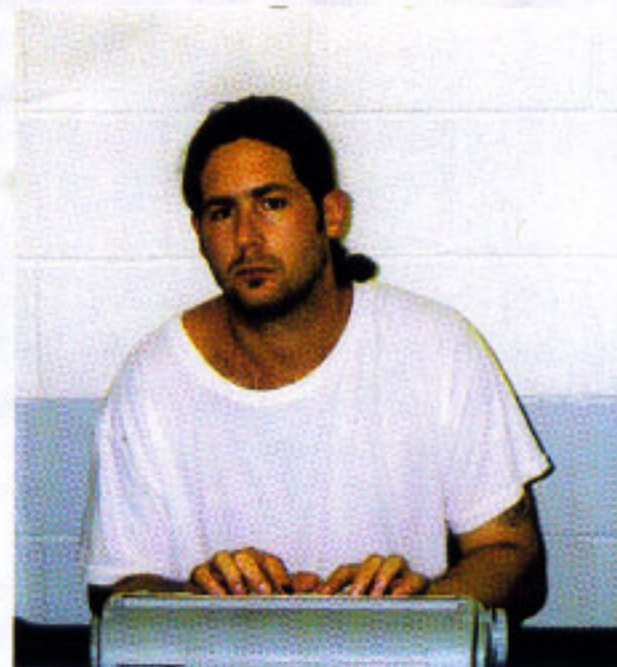

"Death Before DisHonor?" Well I hope some people pay attention and reconize that all those so called G's and sisters who claim they are ride and die chicks, remember: Bonnie went down with Clyde and Clyde went down with Bonnie."

To answer your statement about whether the game is being sold or told. In my opinion, I feel as though the game is being sold for millions and pennies. But to sum it up, I often wonder is the game really being sold, told, and slaughtered. There is no more unity among players. In the old days, you know you were doing wrong, and if you got caught, you paid your dues. Nowadays. the young players want everybody to pay for their oversights. If you play the streets, and make a violation, going to prison will ensue. Never doubt that! The feds are dirty no doubt. but our people is our own worst enemies. Young players, today put there sister, brothers, and even their mother behind bars to save a few years.

THE DRUG GAME TODAY IS A LOSING PROPOSITION ALL THE AROUND. THERE IS NO WAY ANYONE CAN GET INVOLVED IN SELLING DRUGS AND NOT GET BUSTED. WITH THE WAR ON DRUGS, WHICH IS REALLY A WAR ON MINORITYS AND A WAR ON YOUTH, THE FEDS HAVE BEEN PUSHING THE ENVELOPE FOR OVER 20 YEARS NOW. DON'T TRY YOUR LUCK BECAUSE YOU WILL END UP IN HERE WITH ME AND COUNTLESS OTHERS WHO THOUGHT THEY WERE TOO SMART, TOO CRAFTY, OR TOO HIP TO GET CAUGHT. THE GAME IS DEAD AND BY THAT I MAEN ITS NOT LIKE IT WAS BACK IN THE DAYS WHEN DUDES WERE FACING A COUPLE OF YEARS OR MAYBE FIVE, THEY MIGHT KEEP THEIR MOUTHS SHUT BUT NOW ADAY WITH THE FEDS HANDING OUT FOOTBALL NUMBERS LIKE ITS NOTHING; DUDES IS SNITCHING ON EVERYBODY. THERE ARE STILL FEW THAT STICK TO THE CODE OF THE STREETS BUT WE ARE THE MINORITY NOW. DO YOURSELF A FAVOR AND DON'T EVEN GET CAUGHT UP OR YOU'LL BE IN HERE WITH ME. YOU WON'T HAVE TO THINK OF GETTING MONEY, GIRLS, MUSIC, CARS AND CLOTHES. YOU'LL JUST BE THINKING ABOUT WHATS FOR BREAKFAST IN THE CHOWHALL IN THE MORNING. I'VE BEEN IN HERE GOING ON 15YEARS AND I'D MUCH RATHER BE OUT THERE. I SHOULD HAVE LIVED THE SIMPLE LIFE AND CHOOSE THE RIGHT PATH BUT "NO", I HAD TO HAVE IT ALL BEFORE I WAS 21 AND LOOK WHAT IT GOT ME AT. A 25 YEAR SENTENCE WITH NO CHANCE OF PAROLE.
