

❖ ❖ ROBERT BOOKER SR.

Author

Represents: Detroit, MI // Contact: Sims & Sims Productions (313) 727-4687

❖ Buzz Factor: Currently serving a life sentence in federal prison for cocaine conspiracy, Booker decided to try his hand at publishing to raise money for his lengthy appeals process. The Detroit native ended up penning Push, an independent novel about the trafficking of ecstasy and Viagra. By January 2005, Push was one of the top best sellers on the streets and in the Bureau of Prisons

❖ Style: Inspired by authors like Donald Goines and Teri Woods, Booker takes a no nonsense, street reality approach to writing. Using his own experiences as a foundation, the gritty realness of the 'hood permeates through his words as he crafts stories that move on multiple levels and keep readers captivated.

❖ Status: In the coming months, readers can look forward to Push being re-released nationally. Later this year, Booker will put out his second novel, Deep in Da Game. Next year, Keep It Gangsta will be released through Gorilla Convict Publications, an independent publishing house founded by one of his fellow inmates.
